

Resolution of the SI Council on Venezuela

Our World Council of the Socialist International supports the holding of presidential elections in Venezuela in the second half of 2024, which must be held in accordance with the terms of the Barbados Agreement, with full guarantees for all participants, with extensive international observation, with no political or administrative disqualification of candidates, and without judicial or administrative intervention of opposition parties.